

IMPORTANT LEGAL NOTICE

A state court authorized this Notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

YOU MAY BE ENTITLED TO BENEFITS FROM A CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

A proposed Settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit Jessica Ratzak v. Thinkware Systems USA, Inc., Case No.: S-CV-0049793 (the “Lawsuit”). The Lawsuit alleges that Thinkware Systems USA, Inc. (“Defendant” or “Thinkware”) violated the law by misrepresenting and falsely advertising to consumers that its Thinkware F200PRO, X700, DC-M2-FG-IR, DC-M2-FG, and F70PRO dashcams (“Class Products”) featured a “Super Night Vision” function, but failing to disclose that the function was only available in parking mode. Defendant denies these allegations and any wrongdoing but has agreed to settle the Lawsuit to avoid further litigation.

You may be part of this class action if you purchased any of the Class Products in the United States between January 25, 2019 through August 31, 2024.

Your Legal Rights Are Affected Even If You Do Not Act. Please Read This Notice Carefully.

A SUMMARY OF YOUR RIGHTS AND CHOICES

You May:	Summary:	Due Date:
Submit a Claim Form	If you are a valid Settlement Class Member and wish to receive your portion of the Settlement Fund, you need to complete and submit the Claim Form by submitting it online at www.TWCameraSettlement.com , or print it and mail it to: Thinkware Claims Administrator, P.O. Box 1349, Baton Rouge, LA 70821. After the Settlement’s Effective Date and the Court’s final approval of the Settlement, you will then receive a payment for an amount that shall be calculated pro rata based on the number of valid Claim Forms that are submitted by the Settlement Class.	Monday, December 14, 2026
Do Nothing	If you do nothing, you will become a Settlement Class Member bound by the terms of the Settlement Agreement and Final Judgment, thus forfeiting your right to sue on your own regarding any claims that are part of the Settlement. However, your failure to timely submit a valid Claim Form will forfeit your right to receive your portion of the Settlement Fund. All unclaimed Settlement Funds will then be given to The Public Justice Foundation.

Ask to Be Excluded	You can opt out of the Settlement by submitting a Valid Exclusion Request to the Claims Administrator. If you do so, you will not be eligible to receive a Settlement payment. But you will retain the right to sue on your own regarding any claims that are part of the Settlement.	Monday, November 30, 2026
Submit an Objection	You may remain a part of the Settlement and write to the Court and explain why you do not like the Settlement. You may appear and speak at the Final Fairness Hearing on your own or through a lawyer hired by you at your own expense. If you submit a valid Claim Form and the Settlement is approved over your objection, however, you will receive a payment in an amount to be determined based off of your pro rata share of the net Settlement Fund after the Settlement's Effective Date and after the Court grants final approval of the Settlement. You will be bound by the Settlement and give up your right to sue on your own regarding any claims that are part of the Settlement.	Monday, November 30, 2026

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why is there a Notice?

A Court authorized this notice because you have a right to know about a proposed Settlement of this class action lawsuit, and about all of your options, before the Court decides whether to give final approval to the Settlement. This Notice explains the Lawsuit, the Settlement, your legal rights.

The Honorable Trisha J. Hirashima of the Superior Court of California, County of Placer, is overseeing this class action. The person who sued, Jessica Ratzak, is the “Class Representative.” The company that got sued is Thinkware Systems USA, Inc., who agreed to settle the Lawsuit.

2. What is a class action and who is involved?

In a class action lawsuit, one or more people, called “Named Plaintiffs” or “Class Representatives,” sue on behalf of people who the Named Plaintiff believes has similar claims. The people together are called the “Class” or “Class Members.” In this case, the Named Plaintiff and the company being sued, the Defendant, have reached a proposed Settlement. A Court is considering whether to approve the Settlement, so it has allowed, or “certified,” this case as a class action for Settlement purposes only. All decisions that the Court makes concerning the Settlement will affect everyone in the Settlement Class.

3. What Lawsuit is involved in this Settlement?

A class action was filed in the Superior Court of California, County of Placer entitled Jessica Ratzak, et al. v. Thinkware Systems USA, Inc. Case No.: S-CV-0049793. This Lawsuit is referred to as the “Class Action.”

4. What is this Class Action about?

The Lawsuit claims that Thinkware Systems USA, Inc. violated the law misrepresenting and falsely advertising that its Thinkware F200PRO, X700, DC-M2-FG-IR, DC-M2-FG, and F70PRO dashcams featured a “Super Night Vision” function, but failing to disclose that the function was only available in parking mode. Defendant denies these allegations. Defendant denies any wrongdoing but has agreed to settle the Lawsuit to avoid further litigation.

5. Why is there a Settlement?

The Court did not decide in favor of the Named Plaintiffs or Defendant. The Class Representatives and Class Counsel (listed below) believe that the claims asserted in the Class Action have merit, but believe that the Settlement is in the best interests of the Settlement Class. Class Counsel has evaluated information made available in the course of the Lawsuit and Settlement negotiations and have taken into account the risks and uncertainties of proceeding with the Class Action. Those risks include the uncertainty of obtaining and maintaining class certification, prevailing on the merits, proving substantial damages at trial, and prevailing on post-trial motions and likely appeals. Based upon the consideration of these and other factors, including the substantial time and expense of further litigation, Class Counsel believe that it is in the best interests of the Settlement Class to settle the Class Action on the terms described below.

Defendant strongly denies any wrongdoing and does not believe it has any liability to the Class Representative or the Settlement Class. However, Defendant believes that it is in its best interest to settle the Class Action under the terms of the Settlement Agreement and obtain closure on these matters to avoid the uncertainty, expense, and diversion of business resources resulting from further litigation.

The Parties engaged in Settlement negotiations, participated in mediation before a professional mediator, and shared information pertaining to the claims asserted in the Class Action before reaching the Settlement.

This Notice does not imply that any court has found or would have found that Defendant violated the law, that a class would have been certified, or that any member of the class would have recovered any amount of damages if the Class Action were not settled.

WHO IS IN THE SETTLEMENT?

6. Am I a Member of the Settlement Class?

You are a member of the Settlement Class if:

- You purchased the following Class Products between January 25, 2019 through August 31, 2024: Thinkware F200PRO, X700, DC-M2-FG-IR, DC-M2-FG, and F70PRO.
- You are not a current or former employee, officer, director, agent, or legal representative of Thinkware, or its affiliated entities.

This Notice provides a summary of some, but not all, of the terms of the Settlement Agreement. Click here to see a copy of the entire Settlement Agreement. The Settlement Agreement must be approved by the Court and become “Final” before any benefits are paid.

THE TERMS OF THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

7. What benefits will I receive as a member of the Settlement Class?

The Defendant has agreed to establish a Settlement Fund of $850,000 to pay Settlement Class Members who make valid, timely claims; pay Class Counsel's attorneys' fees of up to 33.33% of the Settlement Fund; pay Class Counsel's actual costs up to $20,000; pay a service award to the Class Representative up to $10,000; and pay costs and expenses of Settlement administration.

After the Court grants final approval of the Settlement, each Settlement Class Member who submitted a valid Claim Form as described above will receive a payment for an amount that shall be calculated pro rata based on the number of valid Claim Forms that are submitted by the Settlement Class, and the distribution of Class Products claimed by you and others. For more details on how weighted values are determined, please visit www.TWCameraSettlement.com to see a copy of the entire Settlement Agreement.

8. Are Settlement benefits available now?

No. No money or benefits are available now because the Court has not yet decided whether to approve the Settlement and because it is not yet final. There is no guarantee that money or benefits will ever be distributed. This Notice is being sent to you so that you can decide whether to participate in the Settlement.

YOUR RIGHTS AND OPTIONS

9. What happens if I do nothing?

If you do nothing, you will become a Settlement Class Member bound by the terms of the Settlement Agreement and Final Judgment, thus forfeiting your right to sue on your own regarding any claims that are part of the Settlement. However, your failure to timely submit a valid Claim Form will forfeit your right to receive your portion of the Settlement Fund. All unclaimed Settlement Funds will then be given to The Public Justice Foundation.

10. If I remain in the Settlement Class, what claims do I give up?

If you remain in the Settlement Class, you give up your right to sue in court or arbitration or be part of any other lawsuit or arbitration against Defendant or its affiliates regarding any issues related to the Released Claims (please see the Settlement Agreement for the claims that will be released). Additionally, all of the Court's orders will apply to you and legally bind you.

11. Why would I ask to be excluded?

You may want to exclude yourself from the Settlement Class if you already have filed (or intend to file) a lawsuit or arbitration against Defendant or its affiliates for the Released Claims and want to continue that lawsuit or arbitration individually, on your own behalf. If you do not exclude yourself, you will be legally bound by all orders of the Court regarding the Settlement Class, the Settlement Agreement, and the Released Claims. All Settlement Class Members who do not ask to be excluded will be forever barred from asserting against Defendant and its affiliates any and all actions, claims, causes of action, proceedings, or rights of any nature and description whatsoever regarding the Released Claims, as more fully described in the Settlement Agreement. Settlement Class Members who request exclusion shall not be entitled to recover any benefits from the Settlement. Settlement Class Members who request exclusion will not receive a payment after the Settlement becomes Final.

12. How do I exclude myself from the Settlement Class?

You may exclude yourself (“Opt-Out”) from the Settlement Class by submitting an Opt-Out Form available at the Settlement Website, www.TWCameraSettlement.com. You may submit this form online or you may print out the form and mail it to the Claims Administrator. If you choose to mail your Opt-Out Form, please send it to the following address:

Thinkware Claims Administrator
P.O. Box 1349
Baton Rouge, LA 70821

The Opt-Out Form must be submitted electronically or postmarked no later than Monday, November 30, 2026.

If you exclude yourself from the Settlement, you cannot object to the Settlement and you will not receive any money or other benefits from the Settlement.

13. Can I object to the Settlement?

Yes, but not if you exclude yourself from the Settlement Class. Objecting is simply telling the Court that you do not like something about the Settlement but that you elect to remain in the Settlement Class. All objections that are served to the Claims Administrator by the deadline of Monday, November 30, 2026 will be considered at the Final Fairness Hearing on Tuesday, January 12, 2027. If you do not serve an objection, you waive your right to appeal any Court order or judgment related to the Settlement. If the Settlement is ultimately approved over your objection, you may receive payment in the amount of your pro rata share of the net Settlement Fund less attorney’s fees, costs of suit and administration costs, after the Settlement’s Effective Date and after the Court grants final approval of the Settlement. You will be bound by the Settlement and give up your rights to sue on your own regarding any claims that are part of the Settlement.

To object to the Settlement, you must submit a written objection to the Claims Administrator, by the objection deadline. Please note you must submit an objection to the Claims Administrator if you intend to appear and speak at the Final Fairness Hearing.

Your written objection must include:

- The name and case number of this lawsuit;
- Your full name, address, and telephone number;
- Proof of purchase of qualifying Class Products, including the locations, Class Products and time frames of purchase and any receipts or other documented proof of purchase, if available;

- A written statement of all grounds for your objections accompanied by any legal support for such objections;
- Copies of any papers, briefs or other documents upon which your objection is based;
- A written statement as to whether you intend to appear at the Final Fairness Hearing;
- A declaration setting forth any other objections submitted by you or your counsel (if any) to any class action Settlement submitted in any court (whether state, federal or otherwise) in the United States in the previous five (5) years, along with the case name(s) and case number(s) of any other such matters to which you have objected; and
- If you intend to appear at the Final Fairness Hearing through counsel at your own expense, you must also identify the attorney(s) representing you who will appear at the Final Fairness Hearing.

The deadline to submit your objection is Monday, November 30, 2026. The address for the Claims Administrator is:

Thinkware Claims Administrator
P.O. Box 1349
Baton Rouge, LA 70821

14. When is the Final Fairness Hearing?

The Court will hold a Final Fairness Hearing on January 12, 2027, at 8:30 a.m. in Department 32 of the Superior Court of California, County of Placer located at Hon. Howard G. Gibson Courthouse, 10820 Justice Center Dr., Roseville, CA 95678. The date of the Final Fairness Hearing may change, so please refer to the Settlement website to confirm the date and time of the Final Fairness Hearing. At the Final Fairness Hearing, the Court will consider if:

- The Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate;
- The Settlement should be approved; and
- Any objections to the Settlement and, if so, whether those are valid.

15. Do I have to attend the Final Fairness Hearing?

No. Your attendance at the Final Fairness Hearing is not required even if you submit a written objection. However, you or your attorney may attend the hearing at your own expense.

16. What is required if I object and want to attend the Final Fairness Hearing?

In addition to the requirements for submitting objections, as listed above in question 13, if you and/or your attorney intend to appear at the Final Fairness Hearing, you must provide to the Claims Administrator (who shall forward it to Class Counsel and Defense Counsel) and file with the Clerk of the Court a notice of intention to appear at the Final Fairness Hearing no later than thirty (30) days before the Final Fairness Hearing or as the Court may otherwise direct.

You may file the notice of intention to appear in person or electronically in the case of Jessica Ratzak, et al. v. Thinkware Systems USA, Inc., Case No.: S-CV-0049793 in the Superior Court of California, County of Placer.

17. May I speak at the Final Fairness Hearing?

Yes, you may speak at the Final Fairness Hearing to object to the proposed Settlement, but only if you have submitted a written objection and filed a notice of intention to appear as described above (unless the Court provides otherwise). You may also enter an appearance through an attorney hired at your own expense.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

18. Does the Settlement Class have a lawyer?

Yes. The Court appointed the Law Offices of Todd M. Friedman, P.C. to represent you and the other Settlement Class Members. They are called “Class Counsel.” More information about this law firm, their practices, and their lawyers is available at <https://toddfllaw.com>.

19. Should I hire my own lawyer?

You do not need to hire your own lawyer because Class Counsel is working on your behalf. However, you may hire an attorney at your own expense to represent you and speak on your behalf.

20. How will Class Counsel be paid?

If the Court approves the Settlement Agreement at the Final Fairness Hearing, then Class Counsel will ask the Court for an award of reasonable attorneys’ fees in an amount not to exceed $283,333.33.

21. Will the Class Representative request any payments in addition to the Settlement Benefits?

Yes. The Class Representative in this Class Action is named Jessica Ratzak. Class Counsel will request that the Court grant a Service Award of up to $10,000 for the Class Representative.
